

Leeds Dual Diagnosis Crisis Thermometer

The dual diagnosis crisis thermometer is a tool to help identify appropriate support options when people are experiencing crisis in relation to mental health and substance use has been identified as a related factor. It has been developed in consultation with LYPFT Crisis Assessment Service, LYPFT Acute Liaison Psychiatry and Leeds Survivor Led Crisis .

